DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-12 and 13-19 are drawn to proteins, compositions and kits, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
- II. Claim 12, drawn to an antibody, classified in class 530, subclass 350.

The polypeptides of Group I and the antibody of Group II are patentably distinct for the following reasons: While the inventions of both Groups are polypeptides, in this instance the polypeptides of Group I are single chain molecules that functions as an enzyme, or a fragment of a G protein-coupled corticotrophin releasing factor receptor, whereas the polypeptide of Group II encompasses antibodies including IgG which comprises 2 heavy and 2 light chains containing constant and variable regions, and including framework regions which act as a scaffold for the 6 complementarity determining regions that function to bind an epitope. Thus the polypeptides of Group I and the antibody of Group II are structurally distinct molecules; any relationship between a polypeptide of Group I and an antibody of Group II is dependent upon the correlation between the scope of the polypeptides that the antibody binds and the scope of the antibodies that would be generated upon immunization with the polypeptide.

In this case, the polypeptides of Group I are large molecules that contain potentially hundreds of regions to which an antibody may bind, whereas the antibody of Group II is defined in terms of its binding specificity to a small structure within the recited SEQ ID NOs: 6, 8, 10 or 15. Thus immunization with all the polypeptides of Group I would result in the production of antibodies outside the scope of Group. Therefore the polypeptide and antibody are patentably distinct.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: SEQ ID NOs. These are different molecules with different structures. Success with one does not guarantee success with another.

- I-a. SEQ ID NO: 5 and 6
- I-b. SEQ ID NO: 7 and 8
- I-c. SEQ ID NO: 9 and 10
- I-d. SEQ ID NO: 14 and 15

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 11, 15 and 17 are examples of generic claims.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
